SENIOR POLL

During the first three years of high school, the members of the class of 1981 seemed to be divided into groups of different types of people. But as their senior year rolled around, they became closer together, evaluating the role of a senior and working together to achieve goals for their fellow classmates. Due to the disposition of the class of 1981, the seniors placed first in the annual Homecoming float competition. This was a goal that every senior wanted to accomplish, so by arbitrating with one another and conjunctioning their conceptions, they reached a climactic goal of every senior class.

Michelle Johnson was announced 1980 Homecoming Queen during halftime at the Boyle Co.-Wayne Co. football game. She was escorted by Scott Bodner. With tears of happiness, Michelle received her crown from last years' Queen Kathy Evans. Michelle was chosen because she is a good representative of the student body at B.C.H.S. She was very excited about becoming the 1980 Homecoming Queen.

Debbie,

Hey what's up? Hitting here. I decided to write in you annual again about a 'b' year later. Don't forget all the great times we've had together. Especially the summer of '81. It was pretty good wasn't it. Marshall & Rice really made it for us. Don't forget Caldwell's tomb and Nash trees. ... And remember the time when I was going times in that one weekend. Remember - Let's see it was with Doug Schaefer, Marshall King, Bill Spencer, and some other guy we don't even remember. That was one hell of a weekend. Remember especially the footbridge. That scared the hell out of me. But I guess we made it. If we've made it through a lot of rough times especially the problems we've had with guys. Especially old Probes oh well what do we always say FK 'EM WHO needs guys anyway - WE DO!

Oh if you don't forget the great times in Biology you know the great bug collection you, I, and I made up you know the Leo-Hopper Mrs. Woolkin was a pretty good teacher. Remember the time we had cancer after A. Mrs. Woolkin used to fall down laughing at us.

Don't forget the bonfire nights and the long bike rides. If we had them all the good and bad - the happy and the sad, the true and the false, we'll always be friends just me and you!!!

P.S. Don't ever forget that the whole gang is always there, whenever you need us. Just yell "Hey gang!"

Debbie, remember all the fun times while me & Swayne were still in school! The "Rogues"! (Private ^{30th}) AUTOGRAPHS! But always remember the day me & you & Swayne & Alvey & Avery! Ha Ha! lot of fun! + Keirin + Stacey all went "Shopping"! Ha Ha! lot of fun! + remember the "high" old times + the "orange wonder" that took us everywhere! Last year was fun while I was there for one reason because I was never there! Stay cool & remember you're a sophomore (you can't be a dumb freshman anymore) you won't be a silly sophomore take that too personally! You will make it one day! Don't let any freshman take that my young cousins & free them to to cuel things with could get them arrested or even worse - in trouble with mom! Oh no! Here are a few tips for you to follow for the future: (1) Even if you hate Elmwood Inn, work there a few nights & meet anyway. I know it's rough + sometimes you feel like murdering some of them at time! (me too!) (2) Party all the time! like your big guy! (3) Finish school! (unlike your big guy!) (4) Try to cut your boyfriend quota down to one every two years - not funny (I've cut mine down to one every two years - not funny time!) + (5) Try to stay out of prison & if you do 'illegal things' try not to get caught! Well always remember your big ugly guy who turned you onto S, P, B, + lots more! Do you know the biggest - S! Yes that right, If you end up in jail make sure I'm not around! Love you always! your very, Kandy
